SU STUDENT REPRESENTS KULN TOKYO

Malaysia Overseas Students Bureau is well-known as a world-wide organization that supports Malaysian students studying abroad. KULN Tokyo is, in fact, the branch office of the bureau.

In 2017, Mr. Amirul Ashraf of Applied Chemistry, Faculty of Engineering, was elected as the President of the organization, and he is responsible for supporting Malaysian students in Japan as a liaison person between Japan and Malaysia.

'I have many plans for exchange activities to facilitate mutual understanding between Japan and Malaysia,' Amirul says.

KULN ENSURES UNITY OF MALAYSIAN STUDENTS IN JAPAN!

Malaysia Overseas Students Bureau (KULN Tokyo) is a Malaysian student's organization, established in New York, 1956. Its main purpose is to ensure the welfare of Malaysian students who are studying abroad, varying from helping the Embassy of Malaysia in managing students, to conducting various programs that can benefit students.

From its first establishment in the United States, the organization expanded all over the world in the countries where many Malaysian students are studying, such as Japan, Indonesia, Russia and so on. For example, in Japan, the Malaysia Overseas Students Bureau is conducting various tasks to ensure the strength and unity of Malaysian students in Japan, such as annual programs for students, as well as engagement tasks with the embassy of Malaysia in Japan.

AMIRUL HOPES TO LINK WORLD-WIDE

'As the President of Malaysia Overseas Students Bureau (KULN Tokyo) for 2017,' says, Amirul 'I hereby hope that in the year of 2017, the operation of our organization expands all over Japan, to ensure internationalization through exchange of ideas with not only Malaysian students, but students from all over the world in Japan. In my opinion, exchange of ideas is crucially important for us, students from foreign country, because it will be a priceless value that can benefit students in the future, which defines our main goal as a student's organization.'

He hopes that students of Saitama University continue to support the International Office for countless efforts in ensuring the welfare of all international students in Saitama University. As the representative of Malaysian students, He is looking forward to more collaboration with students in Saitama University.
